Use my Tardus Link if you want to pay for a wealth coach to hand hold you through the process of P2P lending. They created a proprietary tool to show you exactly how much to borrow to lend through P2P lending or other platforms. I am a firm believer in courses and individualized coaching. I have seen huge leaps and bounds by doing both master courses and coaching. Tardus has a great personal coaching program.

For a lower cost option to the above, you can take my masterclass. I take you through how to structure your life like a Hollywood Producer, Hollywood Executive, through the lens of filmmaking. Its lower cost than Tardus because it isn't 1:1 coaching, but a super detailed masterclass course that has fun videos and worksheets to follow along with. You'll also be able to join Facebook groups to help you along the way. Or super charge your wealth by doing both! Sign up for my webinar to see I its right for you.
